Corregidor's Anti-Aircraft Marksmen Get Two Jap Bombers

Increase Bag of Enemy Planes Destroyed to 17 in Two Weeks

Washington, April 4.—(AP)—The war department reported today that the anti-aircraft gunners of the Philippine's Corregidor fortress shot down two more heavy Japanese bombers, increasing their bag to 17 destroyed in less than two weeks.

Two other enemy raiders probably were damaged, a communiqué said.

A new type of bomb was dropped by the foe over Corregidor yesterday afternoon, the department said, explaining that they burst in the air with huge flames. No damage resulted from the attacks.

United States and Australian Troops Welded Into Army

Melbourne, April 4.—(AP)—United States and Australian troops "are being welded together into one great army which will adopt an offensive, not a defensive, policy that will sweep to the sea any enemy daring to set foot on Australian soil," Army Minister Francis M. Forde declared today.

Following a visit to American encampments, Forde commented that the Americans "are like our own boys—very fine troops, of high physical standard."

"From their great leader down to the privates, they are men of whom any nation could feel justifiably proud."

"I believe they will successfully dovetail with our army and, in the words of General MacArthur, stand as blood brothers in the fight for democracy."

Van Mook Confident

Similarly voicing confidence in the growing strength of Australia's defenses, bolstered by men and equipment from the United States, Lieut. Gov. Hubertus J. Van Mook of the Dutch East Indies declared today that any attempt to invade this continent would be "very risky" for the Japanese.

Van Mook, who sought refuge here when the Japanese overran Java, said in an interview that an all-out assault on Australia would involve vast transportation problems and extended lines of communication.

"I do not think the Japanese will attempt a full occupation of Australia," declared Van Mook, expressing belief that Burma was the "real danger spot" in the Pacific war theater.

Preparations For Nazi Spring Drive Seen in Maneuvers

Hard Counter-Attacks on Russian Front Reported in Communiqué

(By The Associated Press) The Russians were reported moving the first of "several million" freshly trained reserves into the thawing battle-fronts from Leningrad to the Black sea today in a fierce effort to throttle the German spring offensive before it can be developed.

The Russians say the reserves will give them an army of 7,000,000 along the western front. They were described as "coming from all parts of the USSR" under a universal military training program.

One Russian source said "there has been much talk about a fascist spring offensive. I think you'll find the reinforced Red army will have something to say about whether they relinquish the initiative."

The invading German forces, estimated to number 4,500,000 troops were reported making "very hard" counter-attacks today as they recoiled from a winter of bloody setbacks.

Activity Increases

The German high command said activity had increased on the northern front, where a heavy battle was reported raging around long-besieged Leningrad, and acknowledged soviet attacks on the Moscow and Ukraine fronts.

A bulletin from Hitler's field headquarters, summarizing the first three months of 1942, declared the Russians had suffered "very heavy losses" in men and material "in an unsuccessful attempt to shatter the German eastern front and during the German offensive operations."

Aside from unspecified high losses in Red army troops, killed, the Nazi high command claimed the Russians had lost 104,128 prisoners, 2,167 tanks, 2,519 guns and 2,720 planes from Jan. 1 to March 31.

A Berlin broadcast said two German infantry divisions alone had killed more than 16,700 Russians.

Small Midwestern Plants Will Make "Bomb Boosters"

Chicago, April 4.—(AP)—The award of contracts totaling approximately $8,000,000 for the manufacture of seven million boosters for aerial bombs to 100 small midwestern plants was announced yesterday by army officials of the Chicago ordnance district.

Emphasizing speed in the manufacture of the boosters, army officials said the cost would be about double that which was paid previously. The boosters, which are small steel cylindrical containers for a high explosive fitted into the bomb nose to increase fragmentation, will be delivered to the government by the first of the year to meet the district's procurement instructions.

Officials of the district's small facilities section said at a press conference that the award of the booster contract was the first move to place war material contracts, chiefly for ammunition, to small manufacturers who have been unsuccessful in securing a share of the war production business.

Willing to Pay More

They said that because efficient machines already were burdened with orders, the government was willing to pay higher prices to manufacturers who have machinery available although production costs were larger.

Donald Nelson, chief of the War Production Board, recently stated that delivery dates, not cost alone, should be a determining factor in contract negotiations and the move yesterday was the first departure from the procedure of granting contracts on a price basis.

Aides of Col. Donald Armstrong, district deputy chief, said four of the firms assigned to the booster order have been designated prime contractors. Other plants will deliver to them the finished product for inspection and the four firms will be responsible for seeing that the work of all plants meets specifications.

Mayor Asks All Rent Increases Be Reported

Mayor William Slothower has requested members of the city council to report all complaints of abnormal rentals being charged in Dixon which are to be investigated. At the meeting of the council today, the mayor stated that nine cases had been reported to him, all of which had been investigated, and the majority of rent increases were found to be justified.

The council met at 9:30 this morning, due to yesterday being a legal holiday. A resolution transferring from the local improvement to the general fund, the sum of $11,787.46, for the purpose of reimbursing the latter fund for expenses paid, was adopted providing for the transfer from the public benefit to the local improvement fund, the sum of $171.66 to meet a deficit which has existed over a period of 18 years on local improvement ordinance 193.

Britain and Italy Arrange Exchange

London, April 4.—(AP)—The foreign office announced today that an exchange of sick and wounded British and Italian prisoners of war—on an "all or none" basis—will begin shortly at Izmir, also known as Smyrna, a port in western Turkey.

Negotiations conducted through a third country—identified only as "a protecting power"—have set in motion the machinery for the exchange, the foreign office said.

"In view of the nature of the operation, further details cannot be given at this stage but a full statement including the names of those repatriated will be issued when it is completed," the announcement declared.

A British spokesman said the Italians to be repatriated "will be far more numerous" than the British from "the inevitable fact that the British empire holds far more prisoners than Italy."

(The British-Italian plan is the second effort to repatriate sick and wounded prisoners since the start of this war. A previous attempt negotiated between Great Britain and Germany failed last October because, the British said, the Germans declined to release entire prisoner groups, irrespective of their numbers.)

U.S. Flying Fortresses, Flying from India, Blast Enemy Ships in Bengal

New Delhi, India, April 4.—(AP)—Japanese ships moored in their newly-won lair in the Bay of Bengal, from which Japan presumably hopes to prey on the United Nations supply route to India and China, have taken a heavy pounding from United States flying fortress bombers operating for the first time from bases in India.

The first communiqué issued by the New Delhi headquarters of the U. S. air forces in India announced that the huge bombers, flown under the personal direction of the U. S. Air Commander in India, Major General Lewis H. Brereton, set fire to one Japanese cruiser and a troopship and probably damaged two other ships.

Major General Brereton, who flew with the American Expeditionary Force in France during the first World War and was commander of the army air force in the Philippines before going to India, was said to have led his bombers into action at Port Blair in the Andaman Islands. The Japanese occupied the islands last week.

The communiqué said: "American flying fortresses of the United States air forces made their first attack from India today."

"Led by Major General Lewis Brereton, commanding the United States air forces in India, a squadron of heavy bombers attacked the enemy's shipping at Port Blair, setting fire to one Japanese cruiser and one troopship and probably damaging two other ships."

"An enemy fighter was encountered and intense anti-aircraft fire but no damage was sustained. All our aircraft returned safely."

President Reported Seeking Agreement for 44-48 Hour Week

Efforts Being Made to Avoid Passage of Restrictive Statutes

Washington, April 4.—(AP)—The administration was reported authoritatively today to be sounding out labor leaders on the possibility of obtaining a voluntary agreement for a 44 or 48 hour work week at regular pay in war industries.

Lieutenants of President Roosevelt, including Vice President Wallace, were said to be taking an active part in efforts to obtain some kind of pact between workers and management which would quiet the controversy which has arisen over the 40-hour week and prevent the possible enactment by congress of restrictive labor legislation.

There has been some discussion in administration circles of a compromise calling for overtime pay only after 44 hours, but opposition to such a scheme was said to have arisen on the grounds that this would be a half-way measure likely to be unacceptable to congressional critics of the present law.

Extra Pay to Uncle Sam

It was understood, however, that any agreement which might be reached would have to satisfy labor that the extra pay it would be giving up would go back to the government, rather than into the tills of war contractors.

Although he declined comment on these reports, Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, made it plain to reporters he hoped voluntary action could be taken before the senate is called upon April 20 to debate a motion to take up a bill by Senator Connally (D-Tex.) permitting the government to take over strike-bound war concerns and freezing conditions in such plants.

Another high ranking senator, who asked to remain anonymous, said an informal canvass had convinced him that proponents had sufficient strength to attach to the Connally bill an amendment lengthening the regular work week in war industries to 48 hours and stipulating that overtime should be paid only after that period.

Bomber Carrying Nine Men Is Missing Today

Boise, Idaho, April 4.—(AP)—A four-motored bomber with nine men aboard was reported missing today by Gowen Field officers.

Col. Charles B. Oldfield said the plane left Ogden, Utah at 9:18 p. m. last night and had not been heard from since. He said the bomber was believed to be down somewhere between Utah City and Boise.

The War Today!

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Wide World War Analyst
(Telegraph Special Service)

There appears to be a very considerable degree of optimism running through the allied countries, due largely to two things—the amazing successes of the Russians, and the appointment of the world's latest hero, General MacArthur, to supreme command in the western Pacific.

It is right that we should take encouragement from these events. Indeed, a certain amount of prideful optimism is a good thing, for it breeds confidence. At the same time many observers have the uneasy feeling that our wings of hope have carried us too high, and that if we encounter harsh adversity we are going to get a nasty fall.

The recording of propitious signs in this column is a pleasant duty, but a war analyst would fail in his trust if he shirked the uncomfortable task of giving the other side of the picture. Therefore, lest we become over-confident, or too much given to wishful thinking, we shall be wise to check up to see just how matters stand.

First off, while it is true that the Russians have given Hitler a terrific lacing this past winter, and undoubtedly have hurt him badly, it is equally true that he seems a long way from being knocked out. He is still powerful—still the master of one of the most perfect fighting machines ever created.

Because of that, and because the holocaust of the next six months or so in eastern Europe and the Middle East is likely to determine the course of the whole war, the Nazi chief is going to strike some mighty blows. It will be strange if some of those blows

Program for Sugar Ration in U. S. May Not Be Necessary

New York Paper Reports Million Tons of Cuban Sugar Now Available

New York, April 4.—(AP)—The long-heralded sugar rationing program may be scrapped, the Herald Tribune said last night in a dispatch from Washington.

The paper said the setup, now tentatively set to get under way with a nationwide registration May 4-7, might be dropped if estimates of current sugar supplies compiled by the War Production Board prevail over the insistence of the Office of Price Administration.

Approximately 1,000,000 tons more of Cuban sugar will be available for United States consumption.

Price Ceilings on Electrical Gadgets

Washington, April 4.—(AP)—Top prices were fixed today on all household electrical gadgets from the toaster in the kitchen to the curling iron on the dressing table.

While the Office of Price Administration set the price ceilings on 44 appliances at March 30 levels, effective next Tuesday, Leon Henderson, administrator, was back in town from a vacation trip in time to study sweeping plans for the freezing of virtually all consumers' goods prices.

The electrical price ceiling covers manufacturers' and wholesalers' figures as well as retail prices, and will remain in force

Jackie Coogan No More Successful in Marriage Than He Is in Finances

Hollywood, April 4.—(AP)—Jackie Coogan, the millionaire kid who became a $54 1/2 month corporal, is no more successful in marriage than he was in finances.

Grown to manhood, he discovered the million dollars-plus he earned as a child film star virtually had vanished. He salvaged $126,000 after a long court fight against his mother and stepfather.

Yesterday, one month after the birth of a son, John Anthony, Jackie said he has separated from his second wife, Flower Parry, a former show girl.

Previously, Jackie had been married to Betty Grable. They had a tempestuous two years. Betty once said they slept on mattresses on the floor of an almost bare apartment. They couldn't afford beds or furniture.

Jackie slipped back in virtual obscurity: was heard of only when he and Betty quarreled, separated, reconciled, finally divorced in October, 1939.

On leave last August, Coogan married Miss Parry at Gardnerville, Nev. He overstayed his leave and was assigned to peel potatoes as penance.

Reporting that he and Flower, now 20, have separated, Jackie said:

"We had known each other only five months when we were married and had known for some time that it was a mistake. x x x I never loved her."

Said Flower, at her parents' home: "If Jackie wants a separation that's the way it will have to be."

Often-Jailed Mayor of Huntington, Ind. Back in Political War Again

Huntington, Ind., April 4.—(AP)—Clare W. H. Bangs, former mayor whose fight for a city light plant put him in jail three times, is back in the political war again, seeking the Republican nomination for mayor.

The lawyer and former president of Huntington College pledged a non-partisan administration and a "new deal in city government." In the GOP primary May 5, Bangs' 52nd birthday, he will oppose Mayor Foster E. Cutshall and City Councilman James R. Toy.

During his term as mayor from 1935 to 1939, the Northern Indiana Power Company blocked his drive for a municipal utility by an injunction suit. Bangs spent almost two years in jail for violation of court orders before his release in December, 1939.

Wife of Major Killed In California Duel Succumbs to Wounds

Santa Barbara, Calif., April 4.—(AP)—Mrs. Evelyn Westrom died yesterday, second victim of a gun duel between retired army majors. Her husband, Maj. William H. Westrom, 45, was killed the night before in the point blank battle.

Maj. Buell Hammett, 44, his pelvic bone shattered by a bullet from Westrom's .38 pistol, clung to life in a hospital.

Hammett, who emptied a .45 automatic at Westrom, his former friend, in an argument over state and home guard units here, said he fired in self defense.

Ballistics experts were called to learn whose bullet killed Mrs. Westrom, mother of two young children.

Navy Reveals Blow Dealt Americans in Southwest Pacific

Washington, April 4.—(AP)—The navy has announced that virtually unopposed Japanese bombers sank the aircraft tender Langley and two other warships in the battle of Java, but the southwest Pacific air tide was believed today to be turning, and navy shipbuilding is far ahead of losses.

About 700 officers and men were lost when the Langley was sunk off Java Feb. 27 and the naval tanker Pecos was sent to the bottom nearby on March 1. The Pecos had been carrying the Langley survivors, and only about one-third of the crews of the two ships were saved, the navy announced last night.

The old fashioned, flush deck destroyer Peary was bombed and sunk about Feb. 19 at Darwin, Australia, going down with her guns firing. The loss of life was believed light.

Meanwhile, fuller details of an earlier engagement came to light. It was disclosed that destroyer division 59 of the U. S. Asiatic Fleet steamed back and forth through a Japanese convoy in a Macassar Strait night attack late in January, sent a number of enemy ships to the bottom with torpedoes and point-blank gunfire, and escaped with only minor damage to one ship.

Naval observers pointed out that when the battle of Java was fought U. S. vessels were handicapped by lack of air support. Now, however, the growing strength of American land-based units in northern Australia may reverse the picture. Both fighters and bombers of General MacArthur's forces sweep regularly over waters north of Australia where the Japanese effort in the southwest Pacific has been concentrated.

25 U. S. Naval Vessels Lost

The new sinkings brought to 25 the number of U. S. naval losses in the war. Thus far ten destroyers, one battleship, three submarines, one cruiser, one aircraft tender, two coast guard vessels, two tankers, one target ship, one cargo ship, one gunboat, and two miscellaneous type vessels have been officially listed as sunk. But the launching of 16 destroyers, a battleship, two cruisers, two aircraft tenders and a number of other naval craft since Pearl Harbor dwarfs these losses. And tragic as they are, the losses became insignificant when compared with the official published list of naval vessels under construction as of June 30 last year—topped by 17 battleships, 12 aircraft carriers and 35 cruisers.

The Japanese, on the other hand, have lost at least 30 warships including a battleship, six cruisers and two airplane carriers. Their rate of new building is believed to be only a fraction of that of the United States.

Tales of Heroism

From official and eye-witness accounts of the new sinkings came tales of individual heroism which matched anything in naval history.

When one gun crew was knocked out by the blast of a bomb, another took over immediately. An officer stayed on a sinking ship to fight off a Japanese bomber's strafing attack on helpless men in the water. An enlisted man "gunnery control talker" refused to leave the bridge when he was wounded, and later risked his life in an attempt to save the ship's pay records.

The Langley, converted from a collier to become America's first aircraft carrier and later turned into a tender to serve both seaplanes and airplanes, had been claimed sunk by the Japanese at least three times during the first month of the war.

Commander Robert P. McConnell, who commanded the Langley, and Lieutenant Commander Elmer P. Abernethy of the Pecos gave details of the Java battles at San Francisco last night. Lieutenant Commander John M. Berningham of the Peary was killed in action. The story of the convoy attack by destroyer division 59 was told by Commander Paul Talbot, who led the division.

PORCHES MAY BE MADE INTO ROOMS

Owners of old properties in defense areas who want to help relieve the housing shortage may find an opportunity right on their own front porch.

Remodeling authorities point out that in these cities, where housing accommodations are inadequate to meet the needs of industrial workers, many old-fashioned but spacious porches could be enclosed to make additional rooms. In most cases such a change would not only bring in regular rentals but would also improve the appearance of the property.

Because porches are so varied in character, each individual porch presents its own possibilities and problems. Large rear and side porches frequently can be turned into sleeping rooms with little difficulty. Some front porches can be made into bedrooms; others are better suited to become living rooms, thus releasing other rooms for sleeping purposes.

The possibility of utilizing porch space is especially well worth considering in the conversion of old homes into apartments or suites. Work of this kind may be financed under the FHA's "Repair for Defense" program.

Whatever purpose the converted porch is to serve, it should be well insulated so that it will be comfortable in both summer and winter and at the same time not add materially to the cost of heating.

Questions and Answers

Q. What is the correct tread width for winders in a stairway?

A. The width of the tread at a point 18 inches from the converging end of the winders should be at least equal to the tread width in the straight stair run. For the average stairway this point will be approximately in the middle of the stair width.

Q. How can I prevent downspouts from becoming clogged with leaves and twigs?

A. Install metal basket strainers at each gutter outlet to downspouts. These strainers will catch debris and prevent its being washed down into the downspout. If the gutters are copper, use a strainer made from copper wire. Galvanized wire strainers can be used for all other gutters. Strainers will require periodical cleaning.

Q. I want ceiling-height book shelves in my new house. Can you help me in the planning of these shelves?

A. Adjustable book shelves supported by pins at the end of the shelf are desirable. These pins are usually spaced one inch apart vertically so that a variety of shelf heights is possible. Shelves need not be more than eight or nine inches deep unless large books are to be housed. Shelves are usually made of three-quarter inch material and should not exceed two feet six inches in unsupported length. Since shelves below a two-foot six-inch height are not very convenient, the space below this height might be made deeper if desired to accommodate large books laying flat.

LINEN HAMPER

In arranging the house provide a hamper for soiled linens that the housewife does not wish to put into regular wash for the laundry or to be sent out, the fine table linens, silk, underwear, etc., that it done separately from the family wash.

It is a simple matter then to select the things which require extra care, and perhaps to do just a few pieces at odd times when an unexpected hour or half hour appears.

Lacquering on Wall Paper

A coat of good lacquer on wall paper, even though it is washable, will protect seams and render the wall completely waterproof. This treatment is especially recommended for bathrooms and kitchens where more frequent cleaning is necessary.

Old Roof Is Poor Economy

An old roof spoils the appearance of your home. If you have wood shingles dried to tinder by years of exposure to wind and sun, they are an ever present fire hazard. One bad storm may open up leaks that may seriously damage inside finish and furnishings.

Unusual Plan Gives Small House Appearance Of Being Much Larger Than It Actually Is

The single-floor scheme is so well handled in this low-cost home that the bulk of the house seems much greater than it actually is. A sleeping porch is used as the connecting element between the living units and the garage. This treatment is regarded as excellent since it not only adds to the apparent size of the house but also removes the odors and fire hazards of a garage to a point as far as possible from the dwelling itself.

In Florida this property was valued at $2,950 and was financed with a Federal Housing Administration insured mortgage of $2,500. Average monthly payments on a maximum 25-year mortgage of this amount total approximately $15, exclusive of local taxes and hazard insurance. The cost of this property will vary in other localities.

Set a Definite Maintenance Program For Your Home During the War

By PAUL T. HAAGEN

Most home owners think of spring and fall periods of the year as the time when they have to consider the repairs necessary to keep their property in good condition. Now more than ever, because of priorities on certain critical building materials which may be hard to get when the time comes that you need them badly, the old house must be kept in repair and not allowed to disintegrate.

Just as you are cautioned by the government to conserve your cars and tires, so it seems imperative to keep up your present home. It is sensible to have comfort and livability in your house, as well as feeling a pride in its possession.

Let us look at some of the units of your house of which it will be difficult to secure certain parts as they involve critical materials. The necessary metal parts of a heating plant may be difficult to secure; therefore, clean out and examine your heating system and put it in as good condition as possible for next year's service.

Your plumbing fixtures have brass fitting, such as faucets, valves, etc. Those should be carefully inspected and any repairs that are needed should be made at once because brass and chrome will be difficult to secure.

Walls and roofs must be weathertight. If they are not, necessary repairs should be made at once because as moisture gets into a roof or on the siding of a house, it brings about rot and deterioration besides the leaks that mar the decoration on walls and ceilings.

Flashings, gutters and downspouts will need constant inspection, particularly as the house grows older. These repairs should be made immediately any signs of failure appear. Galvanized iron sheets and copper will be difficult to get, but substitutes may be used which you may learn about by consulting your sheet metal contractor.

Manufactured candy has an annual value of about $300 million, the 1940 census reports.

Subfloor Acts as Brace

It is best to have the subfloors run diagonally across the joists. It is then possible to lay the finished flooring in any direction you wish. The subfloor laid diagonally also strengthens the house.

Two Baths

Dear Mr. Haagen:

What do you recommend regarding baths for a new house? We would like to have two complete baths. With a large family, one is inadequate at the early rush hours.

Is it practical to have a bath and lavatory on the first floor?

Yours truly,
Mr. C. J. M.

Yes, two baths are like two automobiles—one for mother and father, and the second for the family, so most folks, especially where there is a large family, need two baths.

Baths may be placed side by side so that the same pipes may be used in both baths. This is an economy. Perhaps one bath might be larger than the other; in which case, a shower, now so much in demand by the younger people, can be placed advantageously in the smaller of the two as a shower takes up less room than a tub.

It is most practical and advantageous, in most cases, to have a lavatory or bath on the first floor. This is especially true if there are young children in the family, and many steps will be saved by a first floor bath or lavatory.

Each bath should be equipped with a medicine case having a mirror door with lights on either side of the mirror and with all of the necessary built-in gadgets such as towel bars, soap dishes and other accessories.

Look around your bathroom and especially if you are installing a new one or modernizing the old one. Find a space for a bathroom dressing table, which makes an excellent accessory to the bath.

PAINT AND REPAIRS NEEDED TO KEEP OUT WEATHER

Weather will play havoc with outside woodwork and no matter how good the lumber is or how well put together the joining is, there is always a chance that the elements will find a weak spot. Then the trouble begins.

A small crack may appear at the top of one of the door stiles. Repair that crack at once! It can be fixed now at little cost but if allowed to get larger, the door will soon be in danger and some day a brisk wind may swing the door out and split the stile still further down so that the home owner will have to buy a new door.

Spring and fall are the times to take care of this sort of reconditioning. Due to the extreme weather experienced from last summer's heat to bitter winter cold, the first signs of decay may be apparent on your buildings now. Possibly a leaking roof, paint-thirsty surfaces, sagging doors and rusted sheet metal. All of these items, unless remedied at once, mean a rapid accumulation of expense.

HOME RENTERS' CHECK

Now Time to Build; Money Available

Most home renters have never stopped to think, when they write their rent check each month, that there is a way by which a part of that check could go to their credit against the day when they would own their own home. If there ever was a time when money paid out for rent could be made to buy a home of your own advantageously, it is now. Building costs are still down and the Federal Housing Administration has provided home loans at low interest rates which make it possible to own your home.

If you have been thinking about owning your own home and you fail to make the dream come true within the next few months, there is an excellent chance that you will feel very much like the fellow who has missed the boat.

Birth rate of Australia is 17.65 per thousand, comparing to that of the U. S., 17.9, and Great Britain's figure of 15.5.

YOU DON'T NEED to go to a fortune teller to find out that there are some tough times ahead. But American history has proved one thing.

The people of the U. S. have never failed their country and our country has never failed them. With faith in our government, our army and navy and the justice of our cause we face the future with confidence.

SMALL HOMES • STORES APARTMENTS MODERNIZATION

QUALITY PAYS

Average Home Owner Builds Once

When one realizes that the average home owner incurs an investment of between five and seven thousand dollars for building or buying a house,—and that this sum may represent the savings of many years,—one wonders why so many people enter into the purchase of the property without definitely assuring themselves that the material and intrinsic value of the house is built into its walls.

There are many items to be considered in purchasing a home, and none the least is positive knowledge that the workmanship has been honest, the materials trustworthy, and the design one that will have comfort and convenience for a long period of time.

When building a house, be sure that the plans suit your needs, and then that the specifications are carefully followed. If any requests for substitutions are made, find out the real reason for the request and if it is a matter of saving a few dollars and sacrificing quality or style, do not allow the substitution.

Quality pays in the long run.

LOADING SPACE

Most of the hours that are spent in our homes are given over to sleeping and resting. Our sleeping rooms should therefore be comfortable and our resting places should be arranged for the greatest amount of enjoyment and relaxation. People cannot rest in a dark, badly ventilated or noisy room.

Where the living room is arranged on a somewhat formal plan, or where it must be kept in order at all times, the rumpus room, basement recreation room or a room in which to loaf provides this haven for rest and relaxation.

In this room all formality and even dignity may be laid aside. There is no expensive furniture to be considered, and the floor should be practically damage-proof. If there is a fireplace where steaks may be broiled and corn popped, all the better.

Once having such a room you wonder how you got along without it before!

SMART LIVING ROOM

A living room that is smartly modern in decorations combines warm with cool colors to good effect. The ceiling is painted coral color and the rug is a deeper coral. The walls are painted off-white, accentuating the furniture of rosewood and bleached maple upholstered with coral and brown fabrics.

REVARNISHING FLOORS

A floor should be washed thoroughly with soap and water, rinsed and dried before re-varnishing.

Nine states in 1940 had population densities of less than 10 persons per square mile.

ENGLISH TREND

V-Garden Would Be Aid to Both the Country and Family

Of late many people have been curious and have inquired of others just why a person should cultivate a Victory Garden. The biggest complaint against a garden, given by these curious people, is that a person can buy fresh foodstuffs from the market much cheaper than going to all the bother of raising a garden. There are many and varied answers to such a conjecture.

Every vegetable grown in a garden makes just that much more available for the army. For those home gardens will relieve the tax on the large canneries to such an extent that the latter can supply more canned items to the Army. Regardless of all circumstances, the Army must be fed first and if there are not enough canned goods from the canneries left over to more than supply the needs of civilians, then food rationing will start. A Victory Garden will give added longevity to the correct foodstuffs which should appear on every American's menu.

All housewives should relieve as much as possible the burden on the already strained canneries by canning as much foodstuffs as they possibly can for winter consumption. This would help the government from becoming entangled in legal litigation in attempting to pass bills and laws ruling on food rationing. Undoubtedly there will be some type of labor troubles in some of the large canneries which for temporary periods will cut down their production. Household canning of foodstuffs relieve the strain on the canneries through the winter months so much so that even if labor problems impeded their production quotas they could probably still fill army orders.

Another problem has arisen with the fact that many people who do possess crop producing land do not have the time due to working conditions in order to cultivate it. There are many others who would like a chance to work the ground but lack the land on which to do it. So a bureau has been established at the Chamber of Commerce building. Anyone who has tillable soil should call the Chamber of Commerce and have it listed. Anyone who would desire to work a Victory Garden but lacks the ground should also call the Commerce

A clever interpretation of the English cottage style of architecture that combines unusual attractiveness with convenient comfort. Rooms are particularly well arranged and there is a delightful open porch off the commodious and comfortable living room. Designed by National Plan Service Inc.

Paint Away the Years

A WAR TIME NECESSITY

By Paul T. Haagen

Nothing so cheers the sagging spirits of either one's self or one's guests as bright, new paint for the outside and interior of the house. Many an old, out-dated home has been completely rejuvenated by the simple expedient of removing some of the gewgaws and gingerbread work on the outside of the house, then re-painting, and using a completely different color scheme from that which the house formerly wore.

During the war emergency, it is very important that the old house be kept in good repair just as it is necessary to keep your car going. Care, repairs and re-painting will save many a building from becoming run down at the heels.

Use good white lead and oil paint. It not only improves the appearance but preserves the wood, as evidenced by the wood of the ancient Egyptian mummy cases which has not disintegrated where painted.

By changing the colors a pleasing result may be obtained. Here are a few color schemes:

For house walls that are gray or white, use dark blue or green for painting the trim.

For house walls that are yellow, use brown, blue or green when painting the trim.

House walls that are gray also look well if the trim is white. Use brighter colors for the trimming. They will fade somewhat and give a charming effect.

Get your background for foundation color right in the first building and have his or her name listed. Someway or another a feasible plan to cultivate the proper ground and have people working it who are able to, will be worked out.

The time for early plantings is now at hand and the following crops should be in the ground not later than April 10th: Lettuce, peas, onions, spinach, and radishes. So let's get busy Patriots and get our Victory Gardens planted.

FOUR HINTS FOR MODERNIZERS

It is time that you looked after the repairs of your home. Time and weather may have brought about many defects. Perhaps the old home needs rejuvenating. Here are four suggestions:

1. Look over the house and decide if a different type of front door would improve its appearance.
2. Could you insulate and seal your attic to make a usable room?
3. Could you install an oil burner in the basement, so the basement could be converted into a den or recreation room?
4. Perhaps the open porch could be converted into a closed-in porch or sun room.

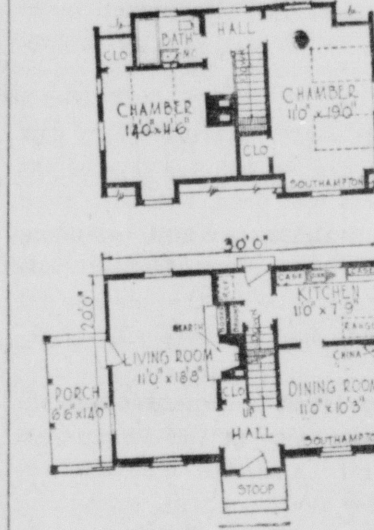

These four suggestions can be accomplished at a little expense and still mean much to the home owner.

Celotex Used to Remodel Cottage

One of the most practical bits of building material that we handle is Celotex.

Celotex has a greater variety of uses than most materials.

One example is the E. S. Rosencrans cottage on Rock River. Celotex plays a large part in the remodeling now being completed on this cottage.

If you want insulation, partitioning, repairing, etc., use Celotex for best results. Fix up an extra room from waste space in your house or construct a game room in your basement, out of Celotex.

Call 57 or 72 today and learn of the many possible uses for Celotex, then come in and see our plan book with outlines for Celotex use.

Coal With 'Calaries' ... Ask for Glendora

Call 57 today for your supply of GLENDORA. You'll soon see for yourself what is a coal with "lots of calories."

NEW HOUSE BUILT ON ROBERT CHASE FARM

A short while ago the Home Lumber Company ran a series of pictures showing homes in all stages of building development as an example of the extensive building undertaken by the people of this vicinity during the year 1941.

The above picture is an example of the completed work on the new house located on the Robert Chase farm, south of Dixon. The ground was broken for this home during the latter part of 1941 and it was completed in March.

The present tenants, the Theodore Pitzers, occupied the house the fore part of March.

This home is one of the most attractive and modern farm homes in the vicinity of Dixon. It is a perfect example of what can be done with the right plans, quality building materials and proper craftsmanship.

If you plan to build, we urge you to do so at once. Building materials are easy to get from the Home Lumber Company and their cost has not increased. However, it is impossible to foresee changes that may alter these conditions. So, save time and money. Call 57 or 72 today and arrange to select plans for a new home.

A Thought for Today

Evil men understand not judgment; but they that seek the Lord understand all things.—Proverbs 28:5.

Knowledge is, indeed, that which, next to virtue, truly and essentially raises one man above another.—Addison.

Act Against "Social Justice"

The time is now! The government must act against "Social Justice," the wholly un-Christian and undemocratic child of Charles E. Coughlin.

The judgment has not been quick or easy for The Evening Telegraph. Many newspapers have felt restrictions on "Social Justice" might open the way to limitations on the right of free press. Others have feared denunciation of the racial and religious slime in "Social Justice" would only spread the flow of that slime.

But now there can be only one decision.

Responsible leaders in the Catholic church, both clergy and laity, have denounced "Social Justice" so many times it is hardly necessary to point out that what is written here can in no way be considered a reflection on that great religious institution.

A New York newspaper sent men into five large cities the other day to find out what people who buy "Social Justice" are thinking and saying. Before the day was out they had these and many more quotes from the victims:

"Roosevelt is insane, just like Hitler says."

"I'm ready to rip the Jews' guts out."

"That bunch of hoodlums in Washington ain't running this thing right."

"I know fellows in the Army and they're growling too. They know this gang in Washington is up to no good."

"Social Justice is the only paper that prints the truth."

Many readers are workers in war plants. Many are sending "Social Justice" to men in the armed forces.

"Social Justice" carried the front-page headline "United States Invades Ireland."

"Social Justice" recommended insurrection to men in the Army and Navy, saying "Some day when our soldier boys return they will drag from their hiding places the convivers, deceivers, plotters and collaborators to mete out to them their just rewards. The longer we wait for that day, the severer will be the repercussions."

"Social Justice" called democracy a mockery with these words, "Democracy! A mockery, that mouths the word and obstructs every effort of an honest people to establish a government for the welfare of the people." That gem was carried in 1938 under Coughlin's signature.

"Social Justice" printed these lies: that the nazis are the victims of a "sacred war declared against Germany nine years ago by the Jews"; that Jap aggression "is nothing more than an expansion of our own Monroe doctrine"; that the idea of a United Nations offensive is "Moscow-born and will produce a defeat abroad and the liquidation of Americanism at home."

The editors of "Social Justice" spit in the face of President Roosevelt, of MacArthur and his men, Lincoln, Washington—and every man and woman through our history who has bled that our country might stay free.

The defeatism and racial poison of "Social Justice" today amount to sedition. Every issue is an insult to America, to the press, to religion—and to you.

The call is for action. That means action against the enemy. And the enemy includes "Social Justice," for that publication is doing the enemy's work.

Brotherly Discord

Pardon us for asking but how long must those blood-brother Aryans, Hitler and Hirohito, hold hands before they pass the presents. Strange that these two fine fellows should not return what allegedly belongs to the other.

Japan got the Caroline, Marshall and Marianne islands in the Pacific from Germany after the last war. Any reasonable person would think the Japanese—they officially made Hitler a descendant of their sun god—would give ear to Adolf's howls about restoring lost colonies.

Germany crushed the Netherlands before Japan seized the Dutch East Indies, so undoubtedly the Sons of Heaven will do the right thing and let their Nazi cousins help rule those pearls of the Pacific. Come on, boys, set us decadent nations a good example.

Chile Finds Out About War

Chile and Argentina, apparently preferring appeasement to solidarity, refused to join their sister American Republics at the Rio de Janeiro conference in a firm front against the axis. Chile, at least, is finding her claim of neutrality doesn't mean much to the Great Man with the little mustache.

The Chilean freighter Tolten was torpedoed and sunk by an axis submarine and 27 Chilean sailors were lost. A surprising number of citizens of that sprawling country thought that as long as they did not provoke the axis, nothing would happen to them. They, like Norway, Holland, Belgium and others, now know that the nazi pledge is as crooked as the swastika.

Patriots

It's the little contributions, the almost insignificant efforts that add up to victory. We need the big bond purchases, the headlined war efforts, but the small, unsung, unnoticed co-operation of every one is what will win this war.

Two workmen spend their lunch hour peeling tin foil off empty cigaret packages. Insignificant? Child's play?

Perhaps. They went without lunch, or hurried through to save that tin foil for war. They, and all the men they work with, take time to walk to a special box to save those empty cigaret packages.

Don't let anyone tell you those men saving tin foil aren't helping fight the battle of the Atlantic and the Pacific.

Victory Through Christ

Christ died upon the cruel cross,
Yes, they nailed Him to a tree.
In His infinite love He gave His life
To give us Victory.

Christ rose again that Easter morn

From the bonds of Death set free,
Through an empty tomb He gave us Faith,
And gave us Victory.

Oh I know Christ lived and died and rose

For today He lives in me.

He fills my heart with an Eternal Hope.
He gave me Victory.

And oh, dear friends, the world around,

He died that He might be
Your Saviour, Shepherd, Friend and Lord—
To give you Victory.

Lord as we travel on Life's Way,

May we witness e'er for Thee
To bring lost souls each day to win
For Thee a Victory.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc. Reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited)

Washington, April 3—They said when France fell, the day of the fortress was dead, but Corregidor and Malta are still standing against the most terrific air-bombing attacks the mechanical mind of man has been able to devise.

The latest Japanese candidate for hari-kari in the Philippines, General Yamashita, stormed Corregidor for days with everything he had in the air shortly after he took command. Thereafter he sent over only two or three bombers a day, indicating he had reached the same conclusion as his suiciding predecessor.

The British dot of Malta, south of Sicily, has been subjected to the unbelievable total of more than 1,600 air attacks since the war began, without appreciable result (which may explain why the nazis have not fooled with Gibraltar).

The explanation is clear. Anti-aircraft fire from a small prepared rocky fort apparently can make it impregnable. The rocky formations permit building of safe bomb shelters, beyond reach of the thousand-pounders.

Large three inch anti-aircraft guns can erect impenetrable walls of fire in a defensive circle above the fort. The bombers are thus forced so high, their chance of hitting their target is virtually nil, and most of their bombs are wasted.

Unfortunately ships at sea and cities cannot maintain such defenses. Only the larger ships can carry 3 in. A-A's and their aim is hindered by the motion of the vessels. Cities have their valuables above ground and are generally built on earth where bomb shelters 60 feet deep would be needed for such complete protection.

Communiqués have been speaking tersely of night assaults by the Japs against Wainwright's line in Bataan, hinting at a new wrinkle in warfare, stolen from the Russian book.

There are new wrinkles but not very well pressed. As the Japs use them, they are just glorified raids against outposts, organized more extensively than usual, so they can employ artillery and mortars in the dark.

In preparation for the night attack, aerial photographs are made of certain American positions. The guns are set and when darkness falls, they blaze away at the fixed invisible point.

Generally this night artillery barrage prepares the way for infantry assault against machine gun nests, the locations of which are plotted out on paper n daylight.

Fortunately most of Bataan is a jungle so deep and dark it can hardly be penetrated in daylight. The Japs, therefore, have concentrated their night attacks generally on the Abucay plain, an open level space near the east end of Wainwright's line, where a stream falls into rice paddies.

Wainwright does the same thing to the Japs, but only as far as his daytime vision permits planning, because he has no aerial reconnaissance.

Fighting generally is three-fourths confusion, but at night it is nine-tenths melee. Results to date testify to its ineffectiveness so far.

About the only thing really new that Yamashita has done in the way of general strategy is to stop the sneak flank infiltration tactics of Honma. The Japs won Malaya with these primarily and are trying them now with great success in Burma. Honma tried them only once or twice and they led to his suicide. Possibly Yamashita is putting them off until last.

The way MacArthur broke them up was to attack, not the infiltrators but the lines in his front, something the British and Chinese have not tried in Malaya or Burma. Now, however, Wainwright is better defended against infiltration. Every crevice and beach along his Bataan shores has been prepared against flank sneaks to the fullest of our ability.

Generally un-noticed is the getting tighter and tighter. Berlin radio has announced bread ration for a normal person has been cut again from 2,250 grams a week to 2,000 grams and meat from 400 to 300 grams—a hitch of one-ninth and one-fourth of the belt again (workers get more, as they could not live on this approximately four-and-a-half pounds of bread and two-thirds of a pound of meat a week).

A copy of the Volkischer Beobachter smuggled out of Germany attributes this and other admitted belt-hitching to such interesting matters as "mediocre crops" and the "large increase in fighting forces in the last few months". The article by Herbert Backe says soldiers must be better fed than civilians.

The "mediocre crops" are, of course, the result of the scorched earth policy in the Ukraine and non-cooperation of conquered peoples. The "large increase in the fighting forces" is something that has not otherwise been advertised and apparently forecasts preparations for an elaborate spring drive, but it likewise confesses the troops will be raw.

CHAPTER X

NO side-winder ever struck faster than Allan Steele. He pivoted in his own length on the ground and came to his feet in the same swift movement. His forward leap and an upward thrust of his powerful left arm knocked aside the barrel of the menacing rifle. It exploded harmlessly. He swung a haymaker with his right which would have torn the East Indian's head from his shoulders if it had found the mark.

Probably the fellow was unprepared for any resistance at all, let alone a counter-attack so dynamic. Perhaps his orders were not to shoot unless necessary. He gave ground almost automatically, and gave it barely in time to escape the looping fist which buzzed by his nose. He shouted something in Japanese, then went spinning into a patch of cactus as Allan's left reached his jaw.

If the Japanese words were a command to close in, his six yellow henchmen had not waited for it. They rushed forward at Allan's first movement. One of them tripped over the Eurasian's rifle, another was knocked sprawling by the Eurasian himself in flight, a third folded up with a grunt and went to earth as Allan's knee drove his stomach against his spine and plastered it there.

But still there were three of the formidable Orientals left. They bowed in, grim, silent, purposeful. Two leaped for Allan's arms, caught them and clung like leeches. The last man dove headlong to grasp his knees in a football tackle, but a well-aimed kick in the face diverted his aim. He sprawled, his arms still groping blindly for their objective.

By now the Eurasian was on his feet again, but standing prudently to one side. His hideous face even more repulsive from hate, he snapped orders in words that crackled. As if prodded by imaginary elephant gods, the temporarily disabled Japs sprang erect and tore in again like men possessed of fiends; they descended upon Allan with the impact of six living battering-rams.

He fought them tooth and nail, also with elbows and knees and fists and feet. The knot of struggling men swayed this way and that, spinning around in a series of crazy circles. No sound came from the straining bodies except Allan's gasping breath and an occasional grunt, with a Japanese accent, as one of his desperate lunges connected with some vital spot in an enemy's anatomy.

Easter Play to Be Presented at Grace Church

A cast of 24 players, assisted by choral singers, will present a sacred Easter cantata at 7:45 o'clock Sunday evening at the Grace Evangelical church. The text is by Dorothy Lehman and the music, by Ruth Dale.

At the conclusion of selections, by the choir, Hope, a young woman, enters and announces that the long-awaited Redeemer is come. A voice, off-stage, invites all "that labor and are heavy laden" to come and find rest. A group of adults and children, some lame and some blind, answer the call.

As the voice concludes "He that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life," the lame walk again and the blind see. When a rich young ruler, Ramah, appears, his friends laugh at him for taking the words of the carpenter's son seriously. Then Faith, a young woman, enters and speaks of the wounds of the "despised and rejected of men."

The story of the Resurrection Day is reenacted by Mary, Mary Magdalene, Salome, and others approaching the tomb, to find it empty. During the song, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," six girls enter and lay Easter lilies at the foot of the cross. The song, "There Is Happiness Today," concludes the cantata.

Composing the cast of characters for the production are:

Voice off stage, Mrs. Wilbur Schreiner; Hope, Mildred Bunnell; Faith, Carmen Schofield; those who come to the light and are healed, Darrell Palmer, Eileen Nielsen, Virginia Workman, Wilbert Boynton, and Donna Mae Palmer; intermediate boy who reads from the Bible, Jimmy Ambrose; Ramah, David Reigle; Jotham, John Kennaugh; three friends, Wilbert Boynton, Harold

Dorothy Chapter Celebrates Its 45th Anniversary

More than 100 members of Dorothy chapter, Order of Eastern Star, turned out last evening to celebrate their chapter's forty-fifth anniversary with a birthday party at Brinton Memorial Masonic temple. Exemplification of the initiatory ritual was followed by a smorgasbord.

Ten past worthy matrons formed an honorary escort for Mark Keller, the chapter's oldest past worthy patron in point of service, and for Mr. and Mrs. Grover Hoberg, sentinel and secretary. It was not until they were in the east, that the Hobergs realized the chapter was honoring the couple's silver wedding anniversary of April 7.

Mrs. Frances Marks, president of the Past Worthy Matrons' club, presented a gift to the Hobergs, who also received a remembrance from the chapter, presented by E. E. Barrowman.

Composing the escort were Mesdames Nellie Gearhart, Fannie Ware, Ruth Emmert, Carrie Coe, Leila Bush, Mildred Beier, Geraldine Palmer, Frances Marks, Mae Keller, and Miss Gertrude Youngman. They held pink snapdragons overhead, to form an arch for the guests of honor. Mrs. Emma Eichler, the chapter's oldest past worthy matron in point of service, was unable to be present because of illness.

Leone Orrt Mills honored Mr. Keller and the Hobergs in song. Mrs. Leila Bush reviewed the chapter's history in rhyme, mentioning each worthy matron and worthy patron who has served.

Tables in the dining room were arranged in the form of a cross, and were colorfully appointed with traditional Easter symbols. Favors were chocolate eggs, topped with candy rabbits. Two large cakes, iced in pastel colors, were decorated with the inscription, "Forty-Fifth Anniversary."

Mrs. Marjorie Barrowman, worthy matron, will be serving in the escort this evening, when Mrs. Rebecca Parker of Chicago, worthy grand matron, visits the Freeport chapter. Others planning to attend from here include Mesdames Beulah Tennant, Carrie Coe, Eula Wilson, Alberta Utter, and Miss Ruth Brown.

Kelchner - Pittman Bridal Will Take Place on Sunday

In tomorrow's procession of Easter brides will be Miss Vernon Marie Pittman, younger daughter of the Ruby Pittmans of 415 College avenue, who will exchange nuptial vows with Earl Kelchner, only son of the Irving Kelchners, at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon before the altar of the West Side Congregational church. The Rev. Theodore DeBoer will perform the single ring ceremony in the presence of approximately 150 guests.

Palms and spring flowers will decorate the church for tomorrow's Easter wedding. Mrs. Gerald Lightner will be at the organ for the wedding marches. Miss Lorraine Pritchard will sing two solos, "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly," with Mrs. Wayne Hartman playing her accompaniments.

Miss Geneva Handley is to be Miss Pittman's only attendant. Donald Beane will serve Earl as best man.

Seed pearls trim the bodice of Vernon's white satin wedding dress, and the same trim is repeated at the wrist of the long, lace-trimmed sleeves. The lace yoke of her gown is heavily beaded, and the full skirt extends into a long train. A seed pearl tiara will hold her long veil to her coiffure. The bridal bouquet will contain white chrysanthemums and sweetpeas, and the bride's "something old" is to be her mother's engagement ring, set with a ruby and pearls.

Miss Handley, as maid of honor, will be wearing a floor-length dress of light blue, with a matching fingertip veil, and she will carry pink chrysanthemums and sweet peas.

Blue and white appointments and spring flowers will decorate the church basement for an informal reception, following the ceremony. Assisting at the refreshment table will be Mrs. Walter Mason and the Misses Nina Cox, Darlene Clark and Leola Kirk. A miniature bride and groom will ornament the top tier of the bride's cake.

Mr. Kelchner and his bride will take an apartment in Dixon. Miss Pittman was graduated from Dublin high school in Mayfield, Ky., and came to Dixon with her parents about five years ago. She

Travis-Garzonio Vows Are Read at Barracks Chapel

St. Mary's chapel at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, was the setting for the marriage of Miss Elinor Garzonio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Garzonio of Peru, and Sgt. Russell R. Travis of Jefferson Barracks, solemnized Saturday morning, March 21, in a double ring ceremony performed by Chaplain Stanley J. Kusman.

Attending the bridal couple were Miss Madeline Pasquali of Kenosha, Wis., a niece of the bride, and Sgt. Leroy Garzonio, the bride's brother, who is stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky.

An orchid was pinned to the grey caracul muff that matched the trim on the bride's wedding suit of wine-colored wool needle-point boucle. The four-strand garnet necklace, which her grandmother wore 80 years ago, was the bride's something old.

Miss Pasquali wore a tailored suit of aqua wool, with a matching hat and beige accessories. At her shoulder was a cluster of gardenias.

The bridegroom and his best man were in uniform.

A wedding dinner was served at the Costilla, a Spanish villa in St. Louis, following the ceremony. A wedding cake, topped with a tiny bride and groom, was the centerpiece on the bride's table.

Mrs. Travis was graduated from LaSalle-Peru township high school, and is employed at the Westlock company. She expects to leave soon to join her bridegroom at Jefferson Barracks.

Sergeant Travis was graduated from Polo Community high school,

VACATION . . . Don Miller, football star of Wisconsin university, is home now for spring vacation . . . when school is completed this spring Don is planning on entering a reserve officers' training school in order to obtain a 2nd lieutenant's commission in the Marine Corps . . .

BONE-HEAD OF THE WEEK . . . Mrs. Em Rorer sent hubby, Em, to the market the other day to purchase some fake green grass for the kiddies' Easter nests . . . we compliment Em on his foresight but not the duty at hand for he returned home with a package of grass seed . . .

NO EASTER PARADE . . . for guys like Duke Kennedy, Pete Phalen and Fritz Hoffman for Bill Nicholson of the Cubs certainly dimmed their lights when he knocked that one out of the park yesterday to give the North Siders a present and to cut the American Leaguers' spring series margin 3 to 2 . . . of course this slight game edge is some consolation for the Pale Hose backers . . .

LUCKY TEACHER . . . Miss Kathryn History Dept. Wright of the local high school faculty just barely nosed under the wire the other day in order to purchase a bike before the government slapped the freeze on all adult wired wheel vehicles . . . Sally Haven of the music department has been proving her proficiency of late on the bicycle which she bought at Christmas time . . . no wonder, she's had plenty of time to practice her lessons . . .

EXTRA . . . don't forget fans, the time is drawing short for early planting . . . so let's get busy with our Victory gardens . . .

George Montgomery Interested in Hedy From First Sight

Hollywood, April 4—(Wide World)—There isn't a lot of difference between George Montgomery and the rest of you guys who have been looking longingly at Hedy Lamarr.

George admits that ever since she brought her black haired beauty to the screen he has watched her with more than passing interest.

The difference is that he finally met her. And opportunity only had to knock once.

Now, they're planning to be married.

Who, asked a lot of people when they announced the engagement, is George Montgomery?

Of course they know Hedy. They remember that the Vienna banker's daughter made "Ecstasy," the film which censors decided was too nudely naughty and thereby assured of huge success at American box offices.

They recall that she was married, when she was 16, to Fritz Mandl, Austrian munitions maker, and later divorced.

They remember well her elopement to Mexico with Gene Markey, the movie producer, which ended in divorce 18 months later because they had only four "nice quiet evenings at home alone" since they were wed.

But Montgomery? Well, he's a good looking fellow, if not the matinee idol type. He's 6 feet 2, weighs almost 200, rides like a cowpuncher and thinks Hedy's wonderful.

He was born near Great Falls, Mont., youngest of 15 children, on a 2,000-acre ranch—"Not very big for those parts, so we rented adjoining land."

Set Date Later
George told a casting director, he could ride a horse. So he spent two days in town as a Cossack charging his white steed up a flight of stairs. The pay was $35 a day.

This beginning did not, however, set Hollywood afire. One day he met Benny Medford, an agent. Benny decided he was a picture prospect.

The casting director at 20th Century-Fox put George under contract. That was two years ago.

At first it was westerns. But now it's better things, such as his recent "Roxie Hart," opposite Ginger Rogers.

George and Hedy met three months ago at a tennis party at Fred MacMurray's house.

They've both worked a lot since then, so much so that George says they haven't had a chance to set the date. But:

"It will be as soon as we both can get enough time off to have a honeymoon."

They agree it will be a quiet wedding, which in Hollywood usually means an elopement.

REHEARSAL DENIED
Indianapolis, April 4—(AP)—The Public Service Commission yesterday declined to rehear a petition by the Illinois Central railroad to discontinue two passenger trains daily between Indianapolis and Effingham, Ill., via Bloomington, Ind. The road's original petition was denied by the commission last February.

About 75 per cent of once-used paper in the U. S. is burned.

Reynolds Wire, Dixon Paint, and Dixon Cafe Bowling Teams Each Win Two Games, Hunter Co. Adds Three To Win Column

The first three teams of the Major Bowling League kept their standings intact last night at the Dixon Recreation as each of them won two games. The only team in the league which gained any appreciable distance in the runnings was the Hunter Co., for they won three games which pushed them a little closer to the third place Dixon Cafe bowlers.

The Reynolds Wire, commanding first by a one game margin, retained their proportionate lead by turning back the Schlitz Beer outfit in two games after faltering before the latter's heated game of 999 in the first clashing. Ridlbauer led the Reynolds' victory with games of 178, 200 and 202 which gave him the high series of 580. F. Smith paced the Schlitz team with a 550 series.

The second place Dixon Paint keggers took an easy two game win over the Sunnysbrook which gave them a victory and then succumbed to the latter in the third game. Johnson was high for the winning Paint team with a series of 567. Dwyre rolled high for the Sunnysbrook outfit with a 559 series.

The Dixon Cafe retained a six game margin on third place as they defeated the Freeman Shoe bowlers in two games then dropped a third. Wolfe turned in games of 207, 203 and 168 to lead the winners with a series of 578. Fago bowled high for the Shoe team with a 515 series.

The Hunter Co. team rolled three games in the 900 bracket in order to shut out and completely subjugate the Hub Tavern bowlers. Nelson grabbed the evening's spotlight for the Hunter Co. as he led them with a series of 607. E. Klein was high point man for the Hub team with a 533 series.

Swift & Co. Willing to Negotiate Master Pacts With Employees

Chicago, April 4—(AP)—Swift & Company today was reported by General Superintendent John E. Wilson as willing to negotiate master agreements covering 15 of the packing company's 50 plants with two labor unions recognized as respective bargaining agents in those plants.

Wilson said the unions are the Packinghouse Workers Organizing Committee (CIO), representing six plants, and the International Brotherhood of Swift Employees, representing nine plants. Swift has one contract with the PWOC in a plant basis and several more with the brotherhood.

HEMORRHAGE IS FATAL
Murphysboro, Ill., April 4—(AP)—James A. McDonald, 59-year-old shoe factory superintendent who was found ill of cerebral hemorrhage in his car Wednesday after his disappearance 16 hours earlier, died yesterday. Funeral services and burial will be held in St. Louis, his former home.

ADVISORY ACCOUNTANTS
Chicago, April 4—(AP)—Appointment of seven accountants and auditors to an advisory committee for the Illinois State Council of Defense was announced by Governor Green. Those named were Lloyd Morey, University of Illinois comptroller, appointed chairman; Roy Andrae, R. O. Berger, Walter M. LeClear and George W. Rossetter, all of Chicago; William Blackie of Peoria, and Raymond E. Rickbell, Springfield.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

Wide World Sports Columnist
New York, April 4—Is the Stanley Cup hockey series that begins tonight the last for the duration? . . . Answer: No . . . With most of the young players going into the services this summer, there's sure to be tough sledding ahead, but our idea is that they'll be able to patch up the Big League teams with exempt players, veterans and minor leaguers, to keep going even if the minors do have to fold . . . Boston's Art Ross is to air his ideas tonight and one suggestion will be that all profits should go to war funds . . . Other sports likely will keep going in the same way—the big leagues at the top and sandlot and industrial teams at the bottom and not much in between.

Today's Guest Star
Tommy Tucker, Cleveland News: "So Cy Slapnicka, who gave up a lucrative job as vice president of the Indians, has become a scout for the St. Louis Browns. It sounds silly, but no doubt the St. Louis job has some advantages. For instance, when you're working for the Browns you are spared worry about winning the pennant."

Sportpourri
When Manager Tony Kaufmann of the Rochester Red Wings got a letter from some fans protesting that their favorite rookie wasn't being given a fair trial, he wrote back: "I have tried Bill at every position and find out that he is best at the plate—in the dining room of the local hotel."

George Elder, who is a promising Sophomore back at Fordham, says the reason he didn't want to go through college known only as "Jack Elder's brother."

Pop Pops Off
"I see that Cy Young and Man O' War have the same birthday, March 29. But I can't decide whether Cy Young was the Man O' War of baseball or Man O' War was the Cy Young of racing."

Pvt. Billy Conn reports that his weight has gone up to 182 pounds since he's been eating Army chow and he expects to hit 188 or 190 for the Louis fight next June . . . "Boy, you should see and eat those breakfasts," says Billy . . . When the baseball season opens at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., tomorrow, the reception center missions will be led by Johnny Sturm, ex-Yank, George Archie of the Browns, and Emmett Mueller of the Phils; the regular post team will include Joe Gallagher, Dodgers, Al Mazur, Louisville Colonels, and a lot of guys who played in smaller minor leagues.

Joe Simonich, old-time pro fighter, had a tough decision to make when he refereed an amateur card out in Butte, Mont., recently . . . One of the closest fights seen Joe's oldest son, Raymond, up against a kid from Dillon, Mont. . . The judges didn't help a bit when they split their votes and left the decision up to Simonich . . . He didn't hesitate at all but gave the nod to the visitor.

Chicago, April 4—(AP)—Duane Bjorklund had a brighter outlook on life today and was thinking of summer days ahead when he again might play baseball. Duane, 13, suffered the loss of a leg last June when struck by a hit-run automobile. He had been active in Boy Scout work in school athletics.

An official of a company making artificial limbs heard of Duane's plight and personally made the artificial limb for him when he learned the boy's family could not purchase one.

WIRES BUSIED TODAY IN TICKING OFF NATIONAL PREP BOWLING TOURNEY

Chicago, April 4—(AP)—Telephone wires today began ticking off the scores that will determine the first National High Schools Bowling Championships.

From coast to coast some 1,500 prep keggers did their rolling in their home cities today and then hurried to wire the results to Chicago headquarters of the American High School Bowling Congress.

Here four congress officers—President Georgia Lydiatt of Berkeley, Calif., and Vice President Lois Lindsay of Chicago, Mary MacGregor of Anaconda, Mont., and Gloria Wittenburg, Palatine, Ill.—compiled the totals under the direction of Milton Raymer, executive secretary of the prep group.

Competition was on a team basis but the boy and girl with the highest scores were slated to be declared national champs.

The winning boys' team will be awarded to trip to the American Bowling Congress meet at Columbus, O., May 2, and the winning girls will enter the Women's International Bowling Congress meet at Milwaukee, May 29.

Two teams of students from the Ohio State School for the Blind turned in scores of 1490 and 1474 on a booster squad last night.

YALE'S SWIMMING TEAM FAVORED IN AAU MEET

New Haven, Conn., April 4—(AP)—If Yale's mighty swimming forces should miss winning the National A. A. U. team championship today, it'll not only be startling news, but a miracle.

The powerful Ellis array, which has mopped up everything so far, including the Eastern and National Collegiate, needs only the A. A. U. crown to climax one of the greatest aquatic campaigns in modern history. And that title was all but wrapped up.

As the three-day championships entered the final phase, Yale's 32 points was overwhelming. Nearest were Princeton, 6, and Mercersburg Academy, 5. And only the latter appeared to be in a position to add to its total, mainly because of Alan Ford, an 18-year-old schoolboy wonder.

Ford was the sensation of last night's competition, winning the 220-yard free style in record time. The Balboa, Canal Zone youngster will try for his second crown tonight when he attempts to dethrone Otto Jarets of the Pasadena, A. C., as the 100-yard free style champ.

Adolph Kiefer of Chicago, who last night successfully defended his 300-yard medley diadem in record time, is favored to repeat in his 150-yard back stroke specialty.

Yale's 300-yard medley relay trio was rated highly to duplicate the performance of its victorious 400 yard free style relay team.

Horses on U. S. farms in 1940 totaled 9,283,892. In addition, there were 3,844,560 mules.

LOTS OF AIR

The windowless plant of one aircraft company has an air cooling and cleaning system which pumps 1,400,000 cubic feet, or 56 tons, of air each minute.

FIRST AMERICAN PLAY
The first play written by an American and played in the United States was "Gustavus Vasa", a tragedy by Benjamin Colman.

One person was accidentally killed every five minutes in the U. S. during 1940.

Polyneuritis Produced Quicker on Water Diet than Consuming Whiskey

Boston—(AP)—It is better to drink whiskey than water if you want to avoid the kind of heebie-jeebies which doctors call polyneuritis.
This was shown in a report to the Federation of American Societies for experimental biology by J. V. Lowry, W. H. Sebrell, F. S. Daft and L. L. Ashburn of the National Institute of Health, Bethesda, Maryland.
These heebie-jeebies, which run to anything from wobbly eyes to pink elephants, afflict chronic drinkers. Until a few years ago these woes were attributed to strong drink. Then doctors discovered that the cause was not alcohol but the fact that the hard drinkers didn't eat enough, especially not enough vitamin B1. On a quart of whiskey a day they were cured simply by making them eat.

Now comes the pay-off. The National Health Institute doctors gave the heebie-jeeby diet to rats. Some of the animals were given water to drink with this deficient diet, some alcohol and some whiskey.
The animals all got the heebie-jeeby condition. But without exception the rats drinking only water got it earlier than their mates who drank either whiskey or alcohol.

The rat state of seeing pink could be prevented, no matter what they drank, by giving them vitamin B1.
POPULAR SERVICE
Of all the special room service obtainable in hotels, breakfast in bed is that most appreciated by guests, with free delivery of a morning newspaper running a close second.
FOCUS HEADLIGHTS
When automobile headlights are out of focus, driving on a wet pavement is increasingly difficult, due to the increased glare.

Methodist church Sunday morning.

Presbyterian Church

Rev. H. Carl Montanus. Sunday school 9:30. Louis Meyer, supt. Morning worship, 10:20. Sermon, "The Victory of the Empty Tomb."

On Monday, April 6, at 7:30 this church will hold its annual business meeting. Officers will be elected and reports of the year's work will be read. It is very important that all members of the church be present.

Next Saturday, April 11, the ladies' Aid of this church will hold its annual spring chicken supper in the dining hall of the church.

100% Immunization

The establishment of the Green River defense plant in Lee county brings the need for making our community safe against an epidemic of diphtheria and smallpox. Immunity to the disease is established only after an interval of 4 to 6 months from the time of immunization. Children immunized before May 1, should, therefore be safe at the period of greatest hazard, next autumn. In order that large numbers of children may be protected promptly, the Federal Children's Bureau has made possible the services of the physicians of Lee county, in cooperation with the Lee County Home Bureau and the County Nursing Service to arrange immunization programs throughout the county according to the following plans:

First: Only those children will receive the treatment whose parents request it by signing a form which may be obtained by calling at the Franklin Grove Community high school office.

Those having children in school will receive the forms from the teachers.

Second: The treatments will be given in the gym at the high school on April 8th at 10:00 o'clock a. m.

Third: The doses of diphtheria toxoid will be given. Smallpox vaccinations will be given on the day the second dose of toxoid is given.

Fourth: There will be no cost for the physicians' services to the pupil or public. It is highly important for all children to receive both the diphtheria toxoid and smallpox vaccination. However, parents must decide whether or not both shall be given. Parents are urged to help make our community safe by having their children protected against both diphtheria and smallpox.

This plan meets with the full approval of Lee County Medical Association and the Lee County Superintendent of Schools.

It is especially urged that those parents having children who will be entering first grade next fall get these tests now so that the child will be protected, but any mother with a child 9 months or older may get a blank at the high school office, and thus avail themselves to free protection for the safety of their child.

Brethren Church Notes

Sunday morning Easter services at 11 o'clock. Candlelight service, 7:30 p. m. Everyone welcome.

Spring Supper

The spring supper of the Presbyterian Aid society will be held Saturday evening, April 11 beginning at 5 o'clock. The committee this year is composed of Mrs. Albert Gross, chairman; Mrs. Frank Senger, Mrs. Will Crawford, Mrs. Abe Yingling, Mrs. Etta Pitzer, Mrs. Cecil Fuller, Mrs. Alfred Heintzelman, Mrs. Herwig, Mrs. C. Dierdorf, Mrs. Ramsdell, Mrs. Ralph Roop. The menu will appear in the Wednesday evening items.

Good Meetings

The union meetings held in the Methodist church Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings were well attended. Rev. S. L. Cover of the Presbyterian church was the speaker Monday night. Rev. Carl Montanus of the Presbyterian church was the speaker Tuesday and owing to the absence of church Rev. Montanus spoke again. Rev. Reeves of the Methodist on Wednesday evening. Each evening a splendid orchestra was present and played. Special music was furnished each evening from the three churches. All who had the privilege to attend feel that the meetings were very helpful and an uplift to the town.

Lutheran Aid

The Lutheran Aid society will meet Thursday afternoon, April 9 at 2:00 p. m. with Miss Ethel Nass. A good attendance is desired.

Brethren Aid

The Aid society of the Brethren church will meet Wednesday, April 8, at the church. Devotions—Ruth Haenitsch. Program—Poems on the Crucifixion and the Resurrection.

F. F. A. News

The Ag. boys are now in a busy time of the year, especially those having swine projects. Many of the sows have farrowed and on the average are doing a little better than last year. So far, there are litters varying from three to thirteen pigs saved. There are some very nice litters of Berkshires, Poles and Chester Whites with seven to ten in these litters.

This year the boys bought an oat huller to hull the oats that they feed to their pigs. This is an excellent feed for small pigs since they cannot digest the hulls on oats. Pigs fed on hulled oats have done better than those fed ground oats in all experiments. One reason is that there is no irritation caused by hulls which makes it possible for disease to start.

The Ag. boys have hulled approximately 450 bushels of oats so far, and if there are any outsiders who want to get some oats hulled, call or see Robert Myers who is in charge of the oat hull-

ing. This hulled oats also makes wonderful chick feed when mixed with cracked corn and wheat.

Adult Evening School

The fifth and last adult evening school will be held in the Ag. room of the Community high school on Tuesday evening, April 7th at 8 o'clock. The topic will be "Marketing Livestock" and the speaker will be C. F. Misser, field man for the I. A. A. Livestock Marketing Department.

This should be a very interesting and worthwhile meeting, since Mr. Misser's job is working in coordination with the Chicago livestock markets. Please invite your friends and neighbors.

The large groups of men who attended the last meeting which was held March 13th enjoyed the very interesting discussion led by Dr. Poppenhause.

Executive Meeting

The executive board of the Woman's Work of the Brethren church will meet April 6th with Mrs. S. L. Cover. The board is composed of Mrs. Alma Fiar, president; Mrs. Bernice Group, vice president; Mrs. Ruth Hussey, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Anna S. Buck, aid director; Mrs. Elsie Willard, Missions director; Mrs. Bessie Blocher, peace and temperance; Mrs. Lulu Smith, Home Builders.

MENDOTA

Three tables of "50" were played with prizes going to Mrs. Elmer Wright and Mrs. Dave Buzzard. Delicious refreshments were served.

Maple Grove P. T. A.

The April meeting of the Maple Grove P. T. A. was held on Thursday evening with a very good attendance. President John Stonebreaker conducted the regular business meeting. Election of officers was held with new officers as follows: President, Mrs. George Schaffer; vice president, John Stonebreaker; secretary and treasurer, Verda Magnuson. Lunch was served by the Russell Weller family and the Howard Strauss family.

Truck Drivers Given New Contract; Higher Wages are Provided

Chicago, April 4—(AP)—After six months of negotiations, representatives of 800 truck line owners and 225,000 A.F.T. teamsters in 12 midwestern states yesterday signed a new labor contract.

During the negotiations the drivers threatened to strike and several issues were referred to the old National Defense Mediation Board and the War Labor Board. Last March 26 the WLB designated regulations governing the leasing and hiring of equipment.

Under the new contract, retroactive to last Nov. 16, drivers receive pay increases of 10 cents an hour and four tenths of a cent a mile over the old scale of 80 cents an hour and three cents a mile.

John L. Keshin, chairman of the central states employers, announced the signing of the contract between the operators and the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. The companies operate in Illinois, Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North and South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas.

Leprosy caused 43 deaths in the United States in 1940.

12 years experience of law enforcement; during which time it was my responsibility to apprehend 3 murderers, several highjackers and hold up men and numerous hog, chicken and automobile thieves. Detailed evidence gathered by my office and turned over to the state's attorney enabled him to secure convictions on every case.

Saved and turned over to County Treasurer over $20,000.00 surplus earnings during 8 years as County Sheriff.

Record as County Treasurer—have saved Lee Co. taxpayers over $3,000.00 in operating treasurer's office past 3 years.

I stand on my record of rigid economy as practiced during the years as your public servant and pledge the enforcement of the law to the best of my ability.
